LATE TELEGRAMS.

About Dowie.

London, Oct. 26.—The London Daily Mail states that Mrs J. A. Dowe, the wife of the leader of the Catholic Christian Church of Zion, has sailed from New York for England. Mrs Dowie is taking with her a strong box containing securities of the value of £1,400,000. The strong box is guarded by detectives. Oct. 27 .- The Rev. J. A. Dowie denies the statement that his wife was taking with her on the voyage from New York to Engthe value of £1,400,000. Mr Dowie states that he bequeaths to his family only 5 per cent. on £4,600,000 worth of property which he owns in Zion city .-

The Rev. J. A. Dowie, will start for Australia in January. The New York Herald hints that the Rev. J. A. Dowie is settling in Australia with a fortune. -Oct. 24.-The Rev. J. A. Dowie is suffering from influenza. He is considering the expediency of summoning a physician. Canada's Demands. Oct. 27.—The Times states that the claim of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the Prime Minister of Caunda, that the Dominion should have full treaty-making powers, points logically to separation from Great Britain. It is difficult, the Times says, to see how such a power will strengthen its hands unless the Dominion has the strength to give effect to treaties. The American press says that the Dominion of Canada owes to England what powers she possesses of resisting what the United States regards as just demands. Proposed Electric Rail way. At the instance of the Emperor William, Prussia is negotiating for the construction of an electric railway under Siemen's system between Berlin and Hamburg,

Heavy Sentence on a Solicitor. October 24 .- In connection with the maining of cattle at Great Wyrley, Staffordshire, George Ernest Edlji, a solicitor of Birmingham, has been tried at the Quarter Sessions on a charge of maliciously wounding a horse. The jury found accused guilty, with a recommendation to mercy on account of his position. Sir reginald Hardy, the Chairman of the Quarter Sessions, in sentencing Edlii to seven year's penal servitude, took no heed of the recommendation, and emphasised the gravity of the offence of which prisoner had been found guilty. .

In presenting the address (the text of which was published yesterday) Sir William Goodman said-Your Excellency, I have been entrusted with the pleasant duty of presenting to Your Excellency an address which the members of the Civil Service of this Colony desire to offer to you on the occasion of your approaching departure from Hongkong. Before reading that address I should like, in a very few, simplespoken words, to assure Your Excellency how sincerely we regret that you are leav ing us. Those of us who have had the privilege of meeting you frequently in connection with your public and social duties feel that we are losing, not only an able Governor, but also, if I may presume to say so, a wise and sympathetic friend. Any member of the Service who may have had recasion to approach you in any difficulty or perplexity could always feel sure of a courteous reception and a kindly and patient hearing. We could always feel sure that he would receive wise counsel or directions from a chief who would go fully into the matter, and who was neveranxious to save himself trouble or to shirk the responsibility of a decision. Earnest and thorough as your work has been, it has not diminished the kindliness of your-heart, the warmth and ganiality of your hospitality, or the keenness of the interest you have always taken in all that conduces to the wolfare and well-being of the Civil Servants in this Colony: I can, therefore, assure Your Ex
